I. Psalm 100:1-5

A. I was having a conversation with someone last Sunday about passwords. If you're doing much of anything online and you're wanting to keep your data secure, you need a password. While some of us cycle through just a handful of passwords, the experts say to stay hack-proof, you need to change them often and they should include numbers, upper and lowercase letters, and not be easily guessable. Let's face it, thievery is alive and well on the internet.

B. I believe our text this evening provides the correct password for entrance into the presence of God. But in this case, the password isn't a secret, it's for all to see. And why do we want to enter into the presence of God Almighty? Because there's no more wonderful or more joyful or a more secure place to be! What's better still, the Lord Himself is the One who has invited us in!

C. Psalm 100:1-5 (ESV) is all about God's grand invitation to enter His presence...

1) V1-2: 1 Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth! 2 Serve the Lord with gladness! Come into His presence with singing! (Even if our singing is but a joyful NOISE, God loves hearing the voices of His children.)

2) V3: 3 Know that the Lord, He is God! It is He who made us, and we are His; we are His people, and the sheep of His pasture. (Jesus talked about sheep and goats; but this verse affirms we're the sheep of His pasture! We belong to God!)

3) V4: (Next comes the password:) 4 Enter His gates with thanksgiving, and His courts with praise! Give thanks to Him; bless His name! (Thanksgiving is always the way to enter in. Thanksgiving in our hearts is music to our Lord's ears! He can hear thanksgiving even when we're crying. He can see gratitude in every salty tear!)

4) V5: (And why can we be thankful in all circumstances and in the midst of pain and difficulties?) 5 For the Lord is good; (cf. Rom. 8:28) His steadfast love endures forever, and His faithfulness to all generations.

D. Whatever it is you may be wrestling with or enduring of suffering through, those things will not last forever. They certainly won't continue past the grave. But God's steadfast love and faithfulness will forever endure and that alone should instill thanksgiving in our hearts. That alone should excite us about entering in--whether we dance in or crawl in! Psalm 25:6-7 (ESV) is part of a prayer-plea by King David: 6 Remember your mercy, O Lord, and Your steadfast love, for they have been from of old. 7 Remember not the sins of my youth or my transgressions; according to Your steadfast love remember me, for the sake of Your goodness, O Lord!

E. The steadfast love of the Lord is not only from of old, it is for us here and now and we've been granted the ultimate expression of this magnificent love. This love is undeserved and it cannot be earned by our hardest of efforts. It must be received with thanksgiving and joy. With faith and gratitude we gain our entrance to it. 1 John 4:9-10 (NLT) declares it: 9 *God showed how much He loved us by sending His one and only Son into the world so that we might have eternal life through Him. 10 This is real love--not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son as a sacrifice to take away our sins. (Therefore beloved, let us enter His gates with thanksgiving, and His courts with praise! Give thanks to Him; bless His name!)

* Close with Prayer...
